NEW BRITAIN — The Garage Dance Studio will introduce dance classes for children at the start of the next school year during after-school hours.

“I never thought it would be so much fun,” Muna Swairjo, owner of the studio at 1385 East St., said.

Children 4 to 18 will be able to take the classes, which will be divided into three age groups.

On Aug. 25 and 26, the dance studio will host a special workshop with Fabian Salas and Lola Diaz.

Salas is one of the pioneers of tango nuevo and one of the actors in the movie “Tango Lessons,” Swairjo said. Registration is now open for the event.

The Garage Dance Studio was opened in March 2016 by Swairjo, who has been a tango instructor for five years and a tango dancer for 15.

Swairjo told The Herald that the studio hosts teachers from around the world and is growing more quickly than expected.

“The Garage’s mission is to support the creative journey of each student in a fun, affordable and caring environment that allows for individual style and growth,” Swairjo said. “We offer quality dance instruction focusing on technique, rhythm and musicality. Whether you are trying dance for the first time or choosing dance as your career, the Garage door is open for exploration, discovery and fun. We will make your experience rewarding and extraordinary one step at a time.”

The dance studio welcomes short- and long-term students, and it offers classes for social gatherings such as weddings and anniversaries.

The Garage Dance Studio features special events throughout the year, such as a tango festival, live bands, workshops, body conditioning programs and educational documentaries and films on the history of dance.

Larry Spence, 77, of Avon, is a tango student at the studio. He said he likes the ambience and said that his tango lessons help him be well intellectually.
