delivering the highest standards in care for our residents through our services such as rehabilitative therapy, skilled nursing care, post surgical care, respiratory care, cardiac and pulmonary care, wound care and specialized dementia care,” states Donna Stango the administrator.

Since under new ownership in 2016, the facility has undergone major updates aesthetically and clinically. Common areas, and resident rooms have been renovated and the facility is scheduled for new furniture later this year. Hartford Hospital has added Grandview Rehabilitation and Healthcare to their preferred provider network for their great patient care. The facility does many community events and is part of the New Britain chamber along with the New Britain TRIAD. Physical therapy is offered seven days a week and concentrates on individual patient goals. Specialized diets and fine dining are available and residents are encouraged to dine in the spacious dining room areas over looking beautiful greenery. Outdoor areas are available for residents and families to enjoy.

Grandview rehabilitation and health care is located in the heart of New Britain across the street from HOCC. They are easily accessible from all major highways and public transportation. They accept private pay, Medicare, Medicaid and most other commercial insurance. They also offer tours of the facility and are happy to answer any questions you may have in regards to care for your loved ones.

“The competent and caring staff make every effort to ensure that their patients’ stay is both productive and enjoyable and our goal continues to be that we remain a leading provider in the healthcare field for the greater New Britain area” stated Mrs. Stango.
