planning, retirement savings strategies, new investors, business retirement plans, portfolio reviews along with charitable giving.

So what inspires Paul Muska to do the work that he does?

"Suffield has been my community for the past 46 years. I wanted to provide my fellow residents with the comfort of retirement they chose. In Newington, I want to continue this trend. In addition, I want parents to send their children to the schools of their choice to provide the best education and have the ability to give back to our community." Muska said.

He goes on to say, "We learn by example, and with two parents highly involved in the betterment of Suffield, it would be hard not to follow the example set by my parents, Mary Anne and Jack Muska."

Setting up a plan to save for retirement can be a daunting task. Muska can make it less stressful by offering advice by understanding what is important to you, using and established process to achieve your goals. And partner together throughout your life to keep you on track.
