Kensington Auto Service in Berlin has been repairing and maintaining automobiles in town for over 35 years, offering a wide variety of services to keep your automobile running efficiently.

Kensington Auto Service located at 89 Harding St. in Berlin. It provides certified expertise in both tires and automotive areas.

"We handle common and complex automotive services," Kensington Auto's writes on its website. "We have ASE-certified technicians on staff."

Kensington Auto currently has two certified ASE Master Technicians on staff. Their services include engine repair services, including diesel engine repair, transmission replacement, brake repair, automotive A/C services, belts and hoses, vehicle inspection, lube, oil and filter change, wheel alignment, exhaust system repair, climate control systems, tire services and roadside assistance.

"We also serve as a local tire dealer with great prices on popular tire brands like Hankook, Toyo and Michelin," Kensington Auto said.

Kensington Auto has been rooted in the Berlin community since 1985, founded by Lenny Tubbs. Tubbs decided it was time to open his own shop after years of working and training in automotive repair and continues to run the business. Over the decades Tubbs has been a part of and has provided a helping hand in the Berlin community.

Kensington Auto serves not only the Berlin community, but New Britain, Newington and Southington as well. Throughout this time they've kept their commitment to quality products and superior customer service to the communities they supply and hopes to expand their services.

With the pandemic and changing times, Kensington Auto does enforce health and safety measures for employees and customers. The staff is required to wear masks and disinfect surfaces between visits. Customers are required to make appointments for their services and wear masks as well.

On top of having a very comprehensive and detailed website, the company is also on social media sites like Facebook and Instagram.
