‘Lighting made simple’ at The Light Hangar Company

PLAINVILLE

The Light Hangar Company offers an affordable alternative to big box stores and personalized service to help customers find the right light to suit their needs.

Located at 1 Town Line Road, The Light Hangar Company is owned by Laura Davis, who opened her business in 2018 and is now eying options for growing and expanding in town.

“Plainville has been a great match for us so we want to stay in town going forward,” she said. “The people here have been fantastic. Since the pandemic, we’ve really seen people starting to rally around supporting small businesses. We’re also looking forward to getting more involved in the community. We’re planning to have a booth at this year’s Pumpkin Festival.”

The Light Hangar Company’s slogan is “lighting made simple.” When customers step through the door, they will find the walls adorned with a “carefully chosen selection” of light fixtures.
